- Very rare half sheet (21X28) multicolor poster "A Far Eastern Artists idea of Buffalo Bill", charming composite image created from western motifs. His hat is Indian teepee, eyebrows are cartridge belts, stirrups for eyes, nose formed from pistol, knife & axe, ear is horse head, snowshoes form moustache, beard is buffalo head, shotgun & tomahawk outline his collar, & a lariat spells "Wild West" as fringe across shirt. By Russell-Morgan, Cincinnati. Generally superb condition. The blank white border has some small edge tears & some repair/retouching along edges, which would be virtually 100% eliminated by mat & frame. On the best quality paper faced linen. 6,000.
- Outstanding red/wht bandana in custom frame 21 X 23. "The Resignation of Pres Washington", standing figure GW holding his farewell address, September 17 1796. Octagonal cartouches present a biography, while the oval ones contain quotes from the address. Overall superb condition. There is a 1½" stitched repair on edge at top center, and a minor bit of insignificant scattered foxing. In 25 years as a full time dealer I've never seen another example. Colling #13 5,500.
- Exceptional full plate daguerreotype by Whipple circa 1852. Massachusetts Governor George Boutwell at elevated podium in center flanked by two secretaries or aides. To either side sit the nine members of the Governors Council. The tenth man is presumably Lt Gov Henry Cushman. From direct descent in the family of Albert Gallatin Browne, who in 1852 was elected to a one year term on the Council. With original gilt paper and black/gold egomise mats in fancy ebonized frame 13X15. Image has a few very minor light scratches and slight overall haze due to tarnish. Darker rainbow tarnish at perimeter. A proper cleaning should make it crisp and brilliant. Whipple was noted for his elaborate group portraits, and in fact, advertised that he had taken this image. 17,500.
- The finest cane I've owned. From a distance it appears to be made from vertebrae discs, but closer inspection reveals that it is finely carved ivory made to resemble vertebrae, with the individual pieces secured by over 100 small pins that appear to be baleen or possibly guttapercha. Topped by nicely detailed dogs head. Along the upper shaft the lettering is scrimshawed and inlaid with red sealing wax "Presented to Lieut Gen Winfield Scott by Fred B(?)enke Turner, carver, Paterson NJ, A Soldier in the Mexican War". Near tip of shaft similar letters read "Down with Treason". Obviously given to Scott near the outbreak of the Civil War. Excellent condition with original 2" iron tip. 14,000.
- Unique pair of gold and enamel lifesaving medals awarded to Greek immigrant John Segalos for his actions at the wreck of the steamer Valencia in 1906. At left is 4¼" medal with high relief gold scene of swimmer and foundering ship, surrounded by enamel life preserver. Enamel US and Greek shields and suitcases of a traveling man "Honor to Whom Honor is Due - John Segalos - From Those Who Travel by Land and Sea - Wreck of SS Valencia Jan 23 1906". Reverse engraved "Presented by Seattle Council United Commercial Travelers of America as a Token of our Admiration for Your Devotion to Duty". Excellent but for several small chips in white ring. Other medal is 4" with enamel flag/shield. Yellow gold wreath surrounds rose gold scene of swimmer. "John Segalos - He Did His Best at the Wreck of the Valencia Jan 23 1906" in inlaid enamel lettering. Reverse engraved "Presented by the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Seattle Wash as a Well Deserved Tribute to Heroism". Pristine condition. Accompanied by historical info and details of the wreck off Vancouver Island of this steamer which carried 164 passengers and crew from San Francisco. Also included is John Segalos Merchant Marine ID card from later years (previously cut up, now re-laminated). 9,750.
- Probably the best Lincoln photo I've owned. Superb very large 7½ X 9¾ albumen on 9¾ X 11¾ card mount. Ostendorf #64 showing Lincoln with Allan Pinkerton and Major Gen John McClelland at Antietam, Oct 3 1862, taken by Alexander Gardner for Mathew Brady. Negative #7949 on helpers newspaper, period brown ink indent and inscription both below and on reverse. The only example of this photo that I can recall in recent years was a likely 3^d generation copy that sold about 5 years ago for $10,000 plus. Excellent condition with only the slightest insignificant wear to mount. Almost as sharp and bright as the Library of Congress example in Ostendorf, probably printed from original negative. 11,000.
- Very rare 2 5/8 (65 mm) silver medal issued by the merchants of Boston to honor Commodore Matthew Perry, long inscription reverse thanking Perry for negotiating treaty with Japan at Yokohama and with Lew Chew at Napa, 1854. Engraved by Mitchell, struck at US Mint. One of only 20 examples struck, no doubt fewer than 10 are known today. Choice proof like condition. 4,950.
- One of my favorite medals. This is only the third one I have seen since the 1981 Garrett Sale, & I bought all of them. 2½ bronze engraved by J Wurden & struck in Belgium. An example in gold was presented to Browns widow. Inscription in French "John Brown Born Torrington 9 May 1800/Assassinated Judicially at Charlestown 2 Dec 1859... Dedicated to those victims who died for their devotion to the liberty of blacks". XF. The last one I had sold for $2,500 a few years ago. 2,250.
- George Washington inaugural button "Memorable Era March the Fourth 1789". Strong VF with nice smooth surface, only the slightest bit of pitting. Original shank reattached long ago - good looking job. A nice example. 1,750.
- The earliest military campaign medal, issued by Oliver Cromwell's Commonwealth for the Battle of Dunbar, 1650. By Thomas Simon, silver oval 1 1/8 X 1 3/8. Bust Cromwell "The Lord of Hosts", reverse scene of the Long Parliament. Historically significant as it was the first medal awarded to all participants in a battle, and not just to high ranking officers. Struck in silver, bronze and lead - the silver no doubt very limited. Strong fine, rare. 300.
- Pair of ¾" brass buttons, joined together by brass link and used as cufflink or vest closure. Federal eagle with shield, 17 stars, circa 1805. Nice XF condition. Display this way or separate into single buttons and sell one! 575.
- Previously unseen 1½ embossed tin shell "In Commemoration of Cetewayo's Visit to England August 1882". He was the Zulu chief responsible for the 1878 uprising and the disastrous British losses at Isandlwana and Rorke's Drift. XF, rare 285.
- Harrison sulfide brooch blk/wht, cabin, barrel, flag, 2 trees. Overall choice condition with just a small loss to black background at right edge. Shank of pin missing. Scarce type without the slogan, way above average condition. 1,250.
- Rare 3½ ivory snuffbox with tortoise shell interior. Bright gilt brass shell under glass "General Washington". Insignificant ½" hairline on edge, basically mint. Spectacular appearance, superb quality. Most boxes of this style & period were burlwood or lacquer - this would have been for a man of means 3,000.
- Rare 1¼ engraved silver badge, crossed bats & ball "Sachem BBC - White Rock RI". Circa 1860's - 80's. Excellent 400.
- Excessively rare Lincoln badge, probably unique. Oval black hard rubber plaque with relief portrait "Abraham Lincoln" on stippled background. 2½ openwork filigree silver brooch with t-bar pin. 2,000.
- The best piece of Bryan Money I've had. 3½ cast aluminum with large portrait "Bryans Money 1896". Reverse eagle "Bryans Idea of Coinage 1908". Bryans portrait and the 1908 date are both very rare on Bryan Money. I don't have the new Schornstein book yet, so I'm not sure if it's listed. XF 450.

- 281 4" blue/white enamel on metal (similar to O'Hara). Bonds & Stock Certificates Engraved...Central Banknote Co-Chicago. 375.
- 282 7½" multi woven silk, Death of Nelson, probably by Stevens. Excellent 175.
- 283 Rare large folding Bowie by Mitchell & Co, Manchester. 8½ clip point blade, 13¾ overall, checkered horn grips. German silver fittings. Original heavy scabbard has surface wear and replaced belt loop. It encloses entire knife except for guard. Knife is excellent, circa 1840's. 2,950.
- 284 Neat 3½ miniature steel miners pan "Little Creek Mining - Nome Alaska Gold Rush - 1898". 225.
- 285 Solid gold matchsafe, all hand engraved with elaborate aesthetic designs. On lid is engraved scene of the Golden Gate and Fort Point. Center panel May 1, 1887, reverse fancy monogram. Perfect 1,100.
- 286 9" miniature sword in scabbard, silvered brass scabbard with relief profile Napoleon, "WATERLOO". Excellent 175.
- 287 Early naval type dirk 8½ overall, turned ivory grip (thin crack in narrow part), gilt brass scabbard with sunburst motifs has about 20% gilt remaining, scalloped circular guard. 425.
- 288 3½ metal cigarette case, monument with Japanese inscriptions, portrait M Perry. 100.

- 289 3" meerschaum pipe "General Dewet". He was commander in chief of Orange Free State forces in Boer War. Chip to brim of hat. 75.
- 290 Spectacular 1836 music "The Texian Grand March...Dedicated to Gen Houston and his brave Companions in Arms", by Edwin Meyrick. Scene of captive Santa Anna surrendering his sword. Very minor bit of foxing, excellent. The previous owner thought enough of this to have a custom made gilt stamped leather and cloth slipcase. Probably the best piece of sheet music I've owned! Slipcased. 1,100.
- 291 This is terrific! Unique painting on silk titled below "The Vision of a Martyr of the Maine". Ship in flames. Angel with crucifix lays palm frond on dead sailor. Barebreasted Victory flies on eagle which holds US flag in talons. Anchor & flag in top border. 16 X 24, great detail and color. Some pale brown discoloration at right margin, bit of foxing in margins. Fine plus, obviously unique. Probably the best Battleship Maine item I've had 1,350.
- 292 Cabinet photo Chief Black Cloud and Prairie Flower, advertising their exhibition of fancy shooting and musical specialties. 3 pics of him, 4 of her. Foxing and soiling, only good, but no doubt rare. 300.
- 293 Superb 19 X 25 drawing signed L T Vernois, done in variety of bright colored pencils. Indian with bow and pioneer with pistol & rifle both chase down the same buffalo. Very fine detail - a high quality piece circa 1860's - 80's. Great color! 975.
- 294 Fine miniature on ivory Lord Nelson in ebonized frame 4 1/4 X 5 1/2. Excellent 575.
- 295 Unusual cachet envelope "Pony Express Riders Golden Gate International Expo - San Francisco to NY by Pony Express - NY to SF by Air Mail". Postmarks and stamps for both expos and both journeys, signed on reverse by three of the riders. 85.
- 296 Very rare 4 1/2 red/wht card Ladies Ticket - Military Ball in Honor of Defence of New Orleans and In Aid of the Creeks - Park theatre Jan 8 1824". Apparently raising money for Creek Indians. 250.
- 297 12" coin changer by Lamson, nickel plated iron with gilt side supports, set in wood encasement. Holds coins from cent to silver dollar. 1880's - 90's. 300.
- 298 13" late 19th century decorative horn (not used for powder). Large star T-E-X-A-S, cannon, 1836 "To Loyalty a Toast - Texicans Unite", eagle attacking snake. Reverse "Bald Eagle Ranch 1874", head of longhorn. 350. (late addition to fill out page) Phenomenal large 37 X 47 advertising display with Babe Ruth endorsing Raleigh cigarettes. Upper background yellow with blk/wht portrait. Lower background is red with full color pack of cancer sticks. Ruth never suspected he would die of throat/lung cancer a few years after this was issued. Couple minor edge tears, slight background fading lower right, some water damage at lower right part of cigarette pack. In great custom mat/frame under plexiglass, 43 X 50. From the Barry Halper collection, believed to be the only example known. 5,000.

This catalog went to the printer a few days after the devastating terrorist attack in New York and Washington. I was going to delay mailing it for a month or so, but President Bush has urged businesses to continue as normally as possible.

"THE INESCAPABLE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS AN ABILITY TO PRESERVE IT FROM DESTRUCTION"

General of the Army Douglas MacArthur

MacArthurs warning has been strangely ignored in recent years. Don't let him down. Death to Bin Laden and anyone who protects him. It's time for governments that support terrorism to pay the piper.
